In finance risk is defined as the possibility that an investment's actual return will differ than the return you expected. Let's go back to the art of Mr. Veray Artsay. Say you thought your $1,000 investment would turn into $5,000 five years later. Risk in this case is the possibility that the art will be worth anything other than $5,000 five years later. There are many, many, many types ...
